

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES FOR COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

St. Paul leadership has final say over any publicity. All events that are promoted must align with our values and will be publicized as space allows, with priority given to St. Paul sponsored ministries and events.

Before submitting anything to St. Paul Lutheran Church for publication, please review the following guidelines:

ACCEPTED

Community Events

Events that benefit the community as a whole.

Non-profit Announcements

Notices from registered non-profit organizations.

Educational Opportunities

Events or classes that promote learning and personal growth.

Positive Entertainment

Entertainment events that are family friendly.

Volunteer Opportunities

Opportunities for church members to serve the community.

Charitable Support

Requests for financial contributions may be considered on a case-by-case basis, particularly for causes and organizations directly connected to St. Paul or our members.

NOT ACCEPTED

Political Campaigning

No promotion of specific political parties or candidates.

Commercial Advertising

No commercial ads or promotions, especially those that don't align with church values.

Controversial Topics

Topics that could cause division or are inappropriate for a church setting.

Non-community Events

Events that don't benefit the larger community or are exclusive in nature.

Negative Entertainment

Entertainment that promotes violence, explicit content, or harmful behavior.

Solicitations for Money

Requests for money towards a service or goods sold.
