PALM SUNDAY
APRIL 13, 2025

AS WE GATHER...With great celebration the throngs of people welcomed Jesus, but they did not comprehend that His gift of life would come at the cost of His own death. We are not in the dark about what awaited Jesus. We know that His great love for us was tested in death on the cross. We know that Jesus was not a victim, But the willing Savior who was determined to pay the price of our redemption. Today, we celebrate the great love that our King has for us.

INVOCATION

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: Rejoice greatly, people of God, behold your King is coming:

People: Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord.

Pastor: In His days shall the righteous flourish: and the abundance of peace shall endure:

People: Hosanna to the Son of David.

Pastor: Our God shall have dominion over all the earth, over all the deeds of man:

People: Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord.

Pastor: We will raise our voices in rejoicing, God’s salvation has come to us:

People: Hosanna to the Son of David.

Pastor: God has exalted him, and given Him a name which is above every name.

People: Blessed is He that comes in the name of the Lord.

Pastor: For the goodness of our God, for the salvation which He brings to us, will praise His holy name.

People: Enter into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise. Amen.

CONFESSION and ABSOLUTION

Pastor: Brothers and sisters in Christ Jesus: I call upon you to confess your sins before Him and to receive from Him the forgiveness which He merited for you on the cross.

Pastor: O Lord,

ALL: Forgive us for living less than the reconciled life, for neglecting the privilege of prayer. At times we are even too busy to hear You speak. Sometimes we limit our trust in You. Forgive us, Lord, for saying no and not meaning it, for our fear of involvement, for our spotty loving, our gloomy thoughts. For neglecting the needy, forgive us, Lord. For our inopportune silences, our level of gratitude, and our poverty of praise, forgive us, O Lord.

Pastor: God shows His love for us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

ALL: Amen.

PASTOR WENDORF'S WEEKLY DEVOTION SUFFERING

I gave My back to those who strike Me, And My cheeks to those who pluck out My beard; I did not cover My face from humiliation and spitting. Isaiah 50:6

Do you like to suffer? When hearing of someone who has died tragically, we are shocked. One of the few comforting words that might be said are these words: "At least she did not suffer." The unbelievable account of Jesus suffering is hard to fathom. Here in our text, a text that Jesus knew well, we realize Jesus even knows the horrible suffering that He would have to face before His death. When asked to reflect on Jesus' death, we cannot say He did not suffer. Did Jesus like to suffer? No. Yet He willingly did so for you and me. Thank You, Jesus, for Your willingness to suffer and die for us. What amazing love You have for us!

*You are welcome to contact Pastor Wendorf to share your thoughts regarding his weekly devotions:
